The Council of Graduate Students was established to promote the academic, social, and economic wellbeing of graduate students of the University of Minnesota, to establish effective communication among graduate students, to create channels of communication with the other parts of the university, and to act as the representative organization for the graduate student body at the University of Minnesota.
Mission Statement:

To advocate on behalf of graduate students and for graduate education within the University community, and to ensure graduate students -- who are integral to the support of the research and teaching enterprises of the University -- are fully supported by their advisors, departments, colleges the Graduate School and the University at large.
Your Role!

1. Tell us what's going on in your department!

2. Tell your department what's going on in COGS, and at the U.
   - EMAIL THEM!!
   - Pass on the summary of important points (we will send this to you to edit for your own department)
